Application Form for Harald Szeemann Grant

Please fill in this form with capital letters and return it to Monika Kordhanke by e-mail at: mail@iktsite.org or by fax at +49 541 323 2409

by 31 December 2018

I herewith apply for a grant of € 500 to attend the next IKT Congress being held from 11th-14th April 2019 in Miami.

If my application is accepted, I consider it as an obligation to participate in the activities of the next IKT Congress and to be present at the General Assembly.

The 2019 Congress and Post-Congress explore issues of resilience and sustainability through the lens of cultural production in Florida, the Caribbean, and Central and Latin America, and how they relate to the global cultural context. We are asking grant applicants to formulate their interest in these topics and how they relate to their practice.

I apply for this grant because (feel free to add an extra page if this space is not sufficient):

General Rules

The IKT Harald Szeemann Grant offers an IKT member or new candidate the possibility to attend the upcoming Congress, even if his/her financial situation does not allow him/her to do so. It is possible to apply for the Harald Szeemann Grant several times, provided that the applicant meets the criteria highlighted above. However, the grant will not be given more than twice to the same person.

The IKT board decides who will receive the grant. The decision of the board is irrevocable. The € 500 grant includes the membership fee of € 50 for one year. The US dollar amount equivalent to the remaining € 450 will be given in cash to the laureate at the beginning of the IKT Congress. Travel and accommodation costs and all other eventual expenses are to be covered by the laureate in advance. By signing this application form the candidate accepts these general rules.
